Playing Your Horn & The Reward

Why do you play the horn?

The main character of this game, Comet, is an ordinary girl and she is certainly not a warrior.

However, she has a mysterious ability to talk to puppets, and become their friend.

During her journey, the puppets that she befriends will fight for Comet.

Comet plays her horn in order to cheer the puppets, and as a result, gives extra power to the puppets.

The puppets love it when Comet plays her horn!

Playing the horn is like cheering music for the puppets. When Comet plays her music, the puppets will power-up, and their offensive power will be raised.

*The power-up effect on the puppets will expire when Comet's following turn arrives. If you wish to maintain the effect, continue playing Comet's horn.

Appreciation & Reward

When Comet plays her horn, each puppet within the effective range will give her 1 point of APPRECIATION. To maximize the points you earn from playing one tune in a turn, you should have as many puppets as possible within the effective range. There is a gauge that indicates how many APPRECIATION points you have earned so far, and this is called the APPRECIATION GAUGE. Comet can only receive APPRECIATION points from puppets in your party only, and you will not receive points from human characters, nor monsters.

REWARD

When you have earned enough APPRECIATION points to fill up your Appreciation Gauge, you will be able to use a REWARD. A REWARD allows you to attack an entire group of enemies at once, or heal all the members of your party.

Character Level Up & Skill Level Up

CHARACTER LEVEL UP

As a character earns more Experience Points by battling enemies, his/her level goes up. The following are the effects of leveling-up:

Increase in parameter. (Agility, Offense, etc.) Learn more magic and special skills. (This only applies to characters that have the potential to use them.)

Cornet's HORN ability during battle becomes more effective.
(Cornet only)

SKILL LEVEL UP

When a character in your party defeats an enemy character, his/her Skill Level goes up by 1 point. When his/her Skill Level points reaches a certain point, then his/her Skill Level goes up, and this will lead to a higher critical hit rate.

Elements

There are 7 Elements in Mar's Kingdom:

[DARK] and [HOLY], [FIRE] and [WATER], [WIND] and [EARTH] are opposing forces to one another. When you attack an enemy of an opposing force with magic, you can do greater damage. At the same time, if an enemy with an opposing force attacks any of your characters, he/she will receive greater damage as well.

When you encounter an enemy with magic ability, you should check their element in order to battle efficiently.

The First Adventure

Below is the first stage of Comet's adventure, "Wonder Woods".

Someday

Sung by: Comet & Kururu

I know that you're out there and I'm waiting for you

Comet is my name and I'm a puppeteer too

With my puppet friends there's nothing that we can't do

They are there to help me make my dreams come true

And once you get to know them they just might help you too

And all the puppets in the world will help me find my way to you

I know that you're out there and I'm waiting for you

There she goes again she's so in love as if lightning struck her from above

"But it did!"

I love you my prince. You are my true love.

Comet, won't you stop your silly dreaming please

"That's not true. Can't you see?" I'm just trying to make my dream come true.

"Dressed like that?"

I've done everything a girl's supposed to

I take a bubble bath, even wash behind my ears Oh!

All the bubbles tickle my nose but they get me squeaky clean

And when I'm done I'm looking beautiful

Comet, you are a silly girl

You must look further than just mere appearances to see

"Comet, are you following this?"

"What's important is"

What's inside of you

"What's inside of me?"

Don't you understand what I am saying to you?

Look inside yourself and you will find out what is true

You must be courageous and be true to your heart

It will make you happy when you know just where to start

I see it's what's inside of me

"Yes, what's inside of you!"

Someday I'll find my love

He'll be the one for me

I will be waiting patiently until he comes

"I told you don't wait! You take the initiative!"

Now I remember, think for myself

"Yeah, that's it!"

I know I'll find him and he will be the man of my dreams

We'll share our lives as one until the end of time

Someday our hearts will beat as one

Let's Go On

Sung by: Cornet

I remember this song, I've known it for so long

And it feels so good to hear

Sounds a little sad but sweet just the same

Lovely melody

Whenever I hear this song, I really don't know why

It makes me shed a little tear

But I'm sure my tears will soon disappear

Because I know you're here

Whenever I am feeling sad

And everything around looks bad

All I have to do is think of you

I know my dreams are waiting to come true

Let's go on with hope in our hearts Love will surely show us how

Let's go on, our hearts filled with dreams

Let's go on and find them now

Let's Go On.

Sung by: Comet & Kururu

Why am I always feeling down?
Why am I always so afraid?
Why? Why have I given up hope?
What is it you're afraid of?
I know. It's okay. You can say I'm afraid too in the same way
I give up hope. I just can't cope
Can't give my all much longer
You're not alone. So just hang on
You must try to be stronger
You can overcome life's ups and downs
You can turn your life around
That's the meaning of true courage
So please remember
Don't you ever give up trying
Be courageous. Keep on striving
Fly to the stars
You can have hope for tomorrow
So let's hold hands with one another
We can both take one step further
Dreams can come true
Find the hope that's deep inside
Find your strength that keeps your dreams alive

♪ Thank You ♪

Sung by: Comet

Thank you, my love. I thank you from my heart
You filled my life with melody and song
You are the one,
I tell my story to
It's just begun. Our love will last forever
We'll share our lives as one
We have shared the laughter and tears
Through all of the years
We will say good-bye just for now till we meet again
Thank you, my love. Thank you over and over
It warms my heart just to say it again
Thank you, my dear. It's so hard just to say good-bye
But I will do it with a tear and a smile
Thank you, my love with all of my heart
You gave to me a reason to believe

< Repeat >

Lessons learned You have taught me through time
And they will stay inside my mind

Thank you, my love. Thank you over and over
It warms my heart just to say it again
Thank you, my dear. It's so hard just to say good-bye
But I will do it with a tear and a smile

Thank you, my love with all of my heart
You gave to me a reason to believe

You helped me find the courage to be me
You gave to me a reason to believe

Mountainmen's Song

Mountainmen, big and strong and full of fury

Mountain God, lead us on our holy journey

YO HO HO, We are soldiers of the mountain

Mountainmen, big and strong and always shouting

Amazing Pirates

We are the fearless pirates

We are the most amazing pirates

We hunt for the sunken treasure in the ocean

When we get sunburn we put on lotion

This is the life of the pirates

The stars will guide our way

We are the fearless pirates

We are the most amazing pirates
